“ Eric I so appreciated your "gone from my sight, she's just as large in mast, hull and spar as she was...her diminished size is in me, not in her." Love to her family and friends, Kathleen and Kent

“ Even though we ended up living hundreds of miles apart, I am so glad that Audrey and I kept in touch. Otherwise I would have missed out on a wonderful friendship. I remember Audrey calling to make sure I was okay when she saw on the news that there was flooding in my hometown. She was like a mom to me and she will be missed. My heartfelt sympathy goes out to the family. I will keep you in my prayers.

“ Audrey became a dear friend of our extended family after she met my father, Ted Pratt, at Westminster Presbyterian in Fort Collins. She attended many of our holiday gatherings and outings. I remember she came to Thanksgiving dinner once. About 17 or so family members were there. We played Pictionary and as is usually the case with that game, there are those who are better at drawing and those who struggle to draw a stick figure. Someone drew a wavy line and then urged us to make a guess. Audrey looked at me with this expression that said, "What are we to get from that?" and we both burst out laughing. Audrey was wonderfully funny and witty and affectionate. We miss her so!

“ I will miss my conversations with my Aunt Audrey. She was always fun to talk to or to be with. I have wonderful memories from my childhood of visiting my Uncle Harold, Aunt Audrey, Sandy, Tom, and Bob. Their home was one of my favorite places. Rest in peace Aunt Audrey as you are united with your loved ones. You shall be missed until we meet again.
My heartfelt condolences to every member of her family, and especially my cousin, Bob. Love to all.

“ So grateful for being able to live stream the beautiful service for my Aunt. I have a lifetime of memories of my favorite Aunt Audrey. Growing up in Bellmore, only a short distance from my aunt, uncle and cousins, the Jones families spent many occasions together especially Christmas, which was my favorite. And if anyone asked me, "who's girl are you?" I would answer, "Aunt Audrey's girl". Over the years we always kept in touch and even though the distance kept us apart physically, it never hindered our closeness and love for each other. Our phone conversations would always end up in memories, laughter and saying I love you. Aunt Audrey helped me tremendously through the recent passing of my mom and dad, for which I am so grateful. I will miss our chats and laughter. I know she is with Uncle Harold, Sandy, Tom and my parents. And even though Aunt Audrey is not here physically, we will always be connected.

I love you Aunt Audrey...until we meet again.

Love your niece - Robin

“ I knew Audrey from church. She was always interested in how my wife and I were doing, and always ready to talk. I enjoyed those conversations very much. Even when her balance started to cause problems getting around, she was happy to be at church and talk with people afterward. She had a long and interesting life, and she accepted the ups and downs as just part of the journey. I miss her but I know she is now happy talking with family and friends in heaven.

“ Audrey was the first person that I met at Westminster Presbyterian. Her personal motivation and dedication to the church, to the mission work that the church does and her devotion to the church family was awe-inspiring. She made me want to be there for her through everything. She never asked for anything and gave everything she could. She will be sorely missed in our church family. Rest in peace, Audrey.

“ I met Audrey through church. Although I don't tend to socialize much I was drawn to Audrey's sense of humor and pleasant attitude. I was pleased to find out that I taught some of her grandchildren and had been able to get to know Robert much better due to our shared interest in computers / cybersecurity. I would look for Audrey after church each service and enjoyed our conversations tremendously. She was a wonderful person and I am a better person for having met her. I will miss her very much and hope and believe she is in a better place now! Bill Kranz

“ Audrey always loved to go to church, sometimes we rode together and after we would go for a ride and she was always amazed to see new areas. She loved to go to a chinese resturant after lunch. She loved to put up all her Christmas decorations especially her many nutcracker soldiers. I always loved going down the street to her house to visit and hear her many stories over her longlife. We all miss her on our street she was always ready to participate. We all miss our oldest neighbor, but will all cherish our memories of her.

“ Audrey was my friend, my confidant and my Dairy Queen buddy! She was the first person to ride in my new car. We loved to go for drives and perhaps stop at McDonald's for a cheeseburger and fries. I know she is happy now "dancing with our Lord!" God bless you my friend. You will be missed and you are loved. Barb Johnson, Westminster Presbyterian church music director.

“ Audrey was a dear person. She epitomized cheerful, positive....even in the face of trouble. We shared many hugs at church. She had a heart for the young children who had parents who struggled. At Christmas for many years, she entrusted me with a monetary gift for a family of my choosing. Each year I would pass that gift along to a parent who was struggling with finances. She did this anonymously and took great joy in knowing she had made a difference. I loved Audrey as a kind and true friend. I miss her.

“ Audrey was such a special friend, we met 16 years ago and I'll always treasure the time we spent together. We would have lunch at our favorite Italian restaurant and share our favorite tiramisu. We would go get our nails done together and I would bring my grandchildren to visit which made her so happy. I will miss her giggles for sure. I'm happy that she's at peach and lived a wonderful life. Love you Audrey
