“ To the family of Barb:

I became acquainted with Barb and Roger through my husband Chet Smith, He and Roger were involved with th devlopent of a friends property, and we hit it off, Barb was so involved with sports so she fit in wll with both of us, I grew to really enjoy being around them. Poor Barb was dealing with her hip but she never let it stop her from us gettikng together.

Barb and I became closer in 2001 . Roger was dealing with his illness and My husband became i9ll and passed away in June and Roger later that summer. Barb n I tried to keep busy and we went to games, dinners and spent a great deal of time together.

Gradually over time, we both returned to our busy schedules and we didn't see much of each other. I enjoyed knowing your mother but I know we needed each other at our hubands death but I am sorry we did not stay closer the last few years. Every time I drove by her house, I thought of her, I will miss her and thinik of the fun times we had as couples before the guys got sick.

You as a family were lucky to have great parents such as Barb and Roger! My deepest sympathy.!
