

Lt. Col. Gerald "Jerry" Elbert Dorwart

December 24, 1937 - March 31, 2021

Lt. Col. (Ret) Gerald "Jerry" Elbert Dorwart passed away at his home in Fort Collins, CO on March 31, 2021. On December 24, 1937, Jerry was born to Olive (Elbert) and Jason Dorwart in Friend, Nebraska. Jerry would often remind his family he was the best Christmas gift his parents ever received. Jerry grew up throughout Nebraska, graduating from Saint Patrick's High School, in Sidney, Nebraska in 1955. He attended both Creighton University and Chapman College, graduating from Chapman College with a degree in Business. Jerry joined the Air Force in 1959. While stationed in Minot, North Dakota, he met the love of his life, Faye Olson. Jerry was a B-52 and B-57 Navigator and flew over 400 missions in Vietnam. He was proud of his service but rarely talked about it. Faye and Jerry married on August 29, 1962. They lived in many places during Jerry's career, including the Philippines, California, South Dakota, Alabama, and others. Jerry and Faye spent twenty years in Nebraska. Jerry loved Husker football. Jerry and Faye were blessed with three spirited daughters, Joan, Karen, and Catherine. Jerry adored spending time with his family, camping in Colorado, teaching his children about the constellations, and traveling with the love of his life. He enjoyed a great party, he could make the best Manhattan, and he loved a good joke. His humor, gentle soul, and boundless love will be missed.

In his later years, he was an active volunteer for McKee Medical Center in Loveland, Colorado, as well as the Veteran's Administration. He devoted his loving guidance to his six adoring grandchildren, who called him Boppa. His children's and grandchildren's lives are forever changed by having a fantastic role model and hero guiding them. Even as Alzheimer's ravaged his brain and body, he still found ways to bring joy and laughter to his family. He was comforted by hearing Faye's voice or seeing her at his bedside. Faye was his primary caregiver for the last several years, and Jerry's face would light up whenever she entered the room, or he heard her voice. Great love never fades.

Jerry is survived by his beautiful wife of 58 years, Faye (Olson) Dorwart, daughters Joan Dorwart of Bellevue, Nebraska, Karen (Brad) Burke of Windsor, Colorado, Cathy (Alan) Ertzner of Fort Calhoun, Nebraska. Grandchildren Andy Anderson of Boulder, Colorado, Matt Anderson of Bellevue, Nebraska, Abigail Burke of Fort Collins, Colorado, Ryan Burke of Windsor, Colorado, and Haley Ertzner and Eric Ertzner, both of Fort Calhoun, Nebraska. He is survived by brothers Jason Dorwart of Greeley, Colorado, and Clinton (Carol) Dorwart of Albuquerque, NM. Many nieces and nephews also survive him. Some of his extended family helped to care for him in his final months. Jerry was preceded in death by his parents, sisters Pat Dellenbach, Margaret (Peg) Peetz, nephews Philip and Daniel Peetz, sisters-in-law Patricia Madson, Mary Baich Olson, Mary Dorwart, and brothers-in-law Richard (Dick) Dellenbach, and Kenneth Peetz.

Comments

“ I remember as a 10 year old, when Jerry was living with his sister and my brother and I were staying his sister also while my folks went on vacation how he was given the task of taking us to and from school at St. Pats. He always treated us with kindness and tried to keep a couple of rowdy young boys under control, 9 and 10, for his sister and for his son-in-laws his parents. He was always kind.

“ I have the blessing of working with Karen and knew from the moment I met her how much her family meant to her. I know so many stories about her Dad and one that stayed with me was when I asked colleagues to tell a story using pictures about their life. As Karen shared, she told us about Jerry and how he taught her about constellations. I feel like I know Jerry through Karen's love. My heart holds Karen and her family. Love, Teresa Roche
