“ How blessed we were to have Harold and Marion as our neighbors in Durango. God truly put them in our paths to show us the grace in which they walked with Him everyday, embracing everyday as a gift from God. I can't even count how many times I heard Harold say today is the day the Lord has made. It was a valuable lesson for us.

We shared that view from his wonderful home. It inspired us to put more windows in ours. The newest owner just told me she thought the opening to the master suite was for air flow until she woke up that first morning to see how Harold had perfectly framed the view of the La Plata Mountains.

There are years of fond memories of your wonderful husband, father, grandfather and my neighbor. Many prayers for all.

“ What a legacy Dad has left behind- a wealth of knowledge, wisdom and insight. He had a wonderful sense of humour and the gift of mediation. His love of God was evident in every patient action and he would start each day with "This is the day the Lord has made..."

“ Uncle Harold remains an inspiration and example of grace, love, compassion, and a life well-lived. I have cherished the memories of our family trips to Colorado during the '60s and credit Harold as the catalyst for seeking CSU as the alma mater for my graduate degree. My thoughts and prayers are with Marion, Terry, and David as they celebrate Harold's homecoming with our Eternal Father.

“ Our first Thanksgiving in Colorado (1960), Jesse was doing graduate work at the Univ. of Colorado. And even though we are distant relatives, Harold and Marian graciously invited us to spend the holiday with them in Ft. Collins. We never forgotten that visit, and have cherished staying in touch each year at Christmas. Many years later, Jesse enjoyed a visit with them in Durango. I look forward to the grand reunion of our family (both blood and blood bought), "when we all get to heaven."

What a testimony Harold's life has been to the love and faithfulness of his Lord. We grieve with you, but rejoice that another saint now stands in glory! Jesse and Gladys Deloe, Winona Lake, Indiana “ Eleven days before Great Grandpa went to heaven, we were visiting with him and Great Grandma. He showed me his talking watch, which announced the time after a button was pushed. When Great Grandpa observed my amazement, he chuckled as only he can. It was a precious moment I will always remember.

“ Harold brought God's peace wherever he went. It was a pleasure to know him during the years that I facilitated Relaxing with Music at Water Valley. His love for his wife and articulate way of sharing his faith will be remembered fondly.

Thank Jesus for sharing this precious soul with the world for 100 years!

“ Grandpa fought the good fight, [he] has finished the race, [he] kept the faith. Now there is in store for [him] the crown of righteousness which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to [him] on that day - and not only to [him] but also to all who have longed for [Christ's] appearing. 2 Timothy 4:7-8

“ The first Sunday I went to Christ the King Lutheran Church, Harold walked up to me as I came in the door and welcomed me. After the service he came up and we chatted again. We found out that we were neighbors and that began a friendship that lasted all the years they lived in Durango. When my Cub Scout den studied Alaska, I asked Harold if he would come tell the boys about his trips to Alaska. He talked about Alaska and had slides of the beautiful eagles that lived there. The boys enjoyed the slides and their guest speaker.

He had a long life, well lived.

“ I am so very sorry for your loss, please accept my sincere condolences. I hope the Steinhoff family find comfort in God's sure promise to restore our dear loved ones to life by means of a resurrection to a paradise earth, where sickness and death will be no more (Revelations 21:4). "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." (John 5:28,29) Truly, what a glorious and almost unbelievable day that will be! It's a reality though for God cannot lie! I hope that reflecting on these thoughts will give you some relief during this very difficult time.

“ Harold always seemed such a wise person to me. Once, while serving together with him at Christ the King Lutheran Church, someone in the process of making a tough decision asked him, "how will I know if God has answered my prayer?" Harold's answer has stayed with me all these years. His response, "I believe God has answered my prayer when I am at peace with a decision."

Blessed be his memory.

“ My husband, Dr. H. E. Owen, Fort Lewis College, worked with Dr. Steinhoff for a time. Herb had so much respect for Dr. Steinhoff. I was fortunate to meet him and his wife at their in Durango. Herb has been gone since 2005. I think of them often.

May God be with you.

“ Scripture sent to the family:

Psalm 16:7-11 New International Version

7 I will praise the Lord, who counsels me;
even at night my heart instructs me.

8 I keep my eyes always on the Lord.

With him at my right hand, I will not be shaken.

9 Therefore my heart is glad and my tongue rejoices;
my body also will rest secure,...

11 You make known to me the path of life;
you will fill me with joy in your presence,
with eternal pleasures at your right hand.

“ Scripture sent to the family

Psalm 73:23-28 New International Version

23 Yet I am always with you;
you hold me by my right hand.

24 You guide me with your counsel,
and afterward you will take me into glory.

25 Whom have I in heaven but you?
And earth has nothing I desire besides you.

26 My flesh and my heart may fail,
but God is the strength of my heart
and my portion forever....

28 But as for me, it is good to be near God.
I have made the Sovereign Lord my refuge;
I will tell of all your deeds.

“ Steinhoff Family, We're so sorry for your loss. We hope that family and friends continue to support you at this time and that you find comfort in God's promise found at Acts 24:15, "I have hope toward God, which hope these men also look forward to, that there is going to be a resurrection..."
