

Imogene Hersh

November 18, 1931 - August 1, 2018

Imogene Hersh, 86 of Fort Collins CO died peacefully in her sleep Aug. 1, 2018. She was born in Mead CO on Nov. 18, 1931. She grew up in the Loveland Buckhorn area and graduated from Loveland High School. She met and married the love of her life Henry “Hank” Hersh and started a home and Hersh Trucking in Fort Collins, CO. There they watched their family and business grow.

Jean enjoyed everything that Colorado had to offer. The mountains, the flowers, the birds, the landscapes and the rocks. She was the loving monarch of the Hersh family and enjoyed watching her grandkids and greatgrand kids play.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Milo and Eva Campbell; her brother, Chuck Campbell; her sister, Jo Bonser; husband, Henry “Hank” Hersh; and granddaughter, Jamie Foust. She is survived by her sister, Carol Robertson (Andy) and Milo “Bud” Campbell (Alicia); 4 children, Hank Hersh Jr. (Annette), Scot Hersh (Denise), Jan Hersh and James Hersh (Amanda); 7 grandchildren and 8 great-grandchildren. Survived by numerous nieces and nephews.

Upon her request a private service will be held. Celebration of life will be held at a later date. Cards to the family or donations to Pathways Hospice may be sent to Bohlender Funeral Chapel, 121 W. Olive, Fort Collins, CO 80524. The family would like to say a special “thank you” to Pathways Hospice and their phenomenal care. Friends may send condolences to the family at bohlenderfuneralchapel.com.
