“ Dear Renee,

I was saddened to hear of the passing of your husband; please accept my sincere condolences and know that I am praying for you and your family during this time of grieving.

Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge Him and He will direct your path. Proverbs 3:5-6

“ Dear Renee,

It saddened me so much to hear of Norman's passing. I never knew him well, but the fact that you loved him was reason enough for me to respect him greatly.

I know what it means to lose my husband, even though I was quite young when I went through it. And, your story is quite different than mine. It certainly brings huge changes and tremendous grief. But it also brings hope as he is deposited safely into heaven and you have yet another reason for wanting to be there too.

I will be praying for you as you make this transition in your life. I will also be praying for Kirsten and Britta as they do the same.

With love and blessings and continuing and ongoing hope in the only One Who saves,
