“ So many of my childhood memories have Phyllis laced into them. I can smell her perfume and I can see the light shining thru her amazing curled hair. She would make butter noodles because she knew I liked them and she was always willing to take Corrie and I on grand adventures-Estes Park was one of our favorites! But the one memory that keeps coming back is the year she let Corrie and I take over the garage to make Halloween costumes out of card board boxes and spray paint and then she drove us around the neighborhood because they were so hard to walk in. Phyllis-may you rest easy and know you left an impression on me and so many.

“ I am so sorry. Thoughts and prayers. I only met her a couple of times but she was a hoot.
