“ Jeannie L. Helzer lit a candle in memory of Toby Viney

Jeannie L. Helzer - August 07, 2020 at 12:21 AM

“ I never met Toby, but my family members knew him. Felt as if I did know him from all the kind words that were spoken about him through the years. Always willing to help someone, even if it meant traveling out of his way to do so--. A selfless human, doing favors and help from the heart---not expecting anything in return but for the person receiving to "pass it on" to help others. Can only imagine how hard this is for the people that knew Toby, as this has affected me, and I never met him. Words and prayers of condolences to his family and friends. The best way we can memorize someone is to continue their ways of kindness. RIP Toby----you left your print on earth.

“ Toby my blood brother my best friend IAM so lost in this mess. I don't know how I'm gonna make it in this world without you. I hope you liked the flower. I Know Toby was always there for his baby sister me. Always helping everybody to get up off the ground and live life. Nothing can ever replace you. You were a devil and an angel. I'm gonna miss you my heart aches you were taken from us. Taken. I'm not gonna stop until the debt is paid. My heart goes wherever you are. Good by my loving brother.

“ I have quite a few memories .. but two that stand out are when he married me and little miss New Mexico after a couple bottle of Jack Daniels and Everytime I got my self in a pickle he was always there to come rescue my truck no questions asked. He was like a big brother to me a friend and somebody I looked to for advice and respected his words. He touched my life and his passing has made me reevaluate my very existence and purpose. His mory will always love on through me .. much love and respect to all family and friends

“ Toby was my cousin and I also spent time with him during his life before his twenties. Toby had a good heart, and smart with things that interested him. His mother Dorothy loved him and his younger brother Kevin, and they would visit us at least once per month, with my mother Hazel babysitting and my brothers and sisters playing with them. One funny memory was Toby learning that Christmas lights were hot at the age of three when he would try to touch them, and all of us would sound off..."Hot, HOT....touch them not! Toby's first poem. Always a restless spirit and at odds with some rules of authority, he lived a tough life....but he was always kind to his relatives and his friends. I wish him well and pray he has found peace with himself, his family that has passed, and with God.

“ He was the cutest kid as a toddler with perfect fitting Levi's and red tennis shoes and long blonde hair combed back on the sides. His mom Dorothy, was very pretty and Toby favored her looks at the time. He just laughed and giggled all day. Duane his dad, seemed very happy then. Duane my uncle and was my moms little brother. So, this new cousin of mine made for some great family visits. Kevin came a couple years later and was cute and bigger favoring his dad. Then as I was twelve years older, Vietnam came and I am gone and don't see them grow up as I move to california after the Navy is done with me. I came back for moms funeral, fished with Toby and later spent a day with Kevin who reminded me of Duane so much, how he ran the business.(Toby caught the most trout that day.) Best to all, love Butch your first cousin.
