

Adam Alfred Kenneth Dayan

March 7, 1980 - January 18, 2020

Dayan, Adam Alfred Kenneth, of Loveland, Colorado, died on Saturday, January 18, 2020. Adam was born on March 7, 1980, in Van Nuys, California, to Victoria and Chanan Dayan.

At age seven, Adam suffered a traumatic brain injury resulting in epilepsy. Various medicine regimes and two neurosurgeries were attempted to control the epilepsy to no avail. Over time and with the advancement of medical technology, his seizure frequency reduced, and Adam was seizure-free since 2016.

Adam attended services with Beth Evergreen Congregation. He then came under the wing of a non-profit organization, Mosaic and attended classes and worked at Foothills Gateway in Fort Collins.

Despite these limitations and challenges, Adam always had a positive attitude. His caring nature, warm sense of humor made him a favorite with all who knew him. He was kind to everyone. He will be missed.

Surviving are his mother: Victoria Dayan; father: Chanan Dayan; sisters: Anna Dayan; Kristen Simms; brothers: Joshua Dayan; Daniel Dayan and their families and all who knew him.

Services will be Wednesday, January 22, at 1:30 p.m. at Bohlender Funeral Chapel, officiated by Rabbi Jamie Arnold. Pallbearers are: Chanan Dayan, Joshua Dayan, Daniel Dayan, Leon Dayan, Zach Simms, Interment will be at the Fort Collins Roselawn Cemetery on Mulberry St, at 2:45 p.m. on Wednesday, January 22, under the direction of Bohlender Funeral Chapel.

In lieu of flowers, gifts may be made to Mosaic of Northern Colorado at the service or online at <https://www.mosaicinfo.org/locations/colorado/northern-co/>
