July 20, 1935 - September 5, 2023

Adele Jane (Walmsley) Dyer was born July 20, 1935, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, third and youngest child of Henry Clay and Dorothy Grace (Gotwols) Walmsley. She graduated from Central Bucks High School, class of 1953, in Doylestown, Pennsylvania.

Adele met an Army man, Lee Dyer, at Fort Carson, Colorado, and they married on September 16, 1961, in Chalfont, Pennsylvania. Adele and Lee raised their three children in various places in the U.S. and abroad while Lee served in the U.S. Army.

After Lee retired as a Major in 1977, they moved to Fort Collins where Adele made a home and all three children graduated high school. While her children went off to college, married, moved on and raised families of their own, the home that Adele created was homebase for her children and nine grandchildren for 41 years, until she moved to the Denver area in 2020 to be closer to her daughters.

Adele Dyer passed on to glory on September 5, 2023, in Denver, Colorado. She will be missed by her family and many others who have come to love and care for her.
