“ We had the great pleasure of being June's next-door neighbor in Fort Collins from 2001 to 2019. Our time together was filled with many friendly chats and shared stories. Among our favorites were June's accounts of how she went about persuading the city to include a swimming pool in the Senior Center and how she came to accept Charles' repeated wedding proposals. We truly miss not seeing her regularly next door. Rafael and Phyllis Ubico

“ A wonderful person and neighbor, the Bergstrom's family took care of us as we were growing up in Fort Collins. From hotcakes on Sunday morning, trips to the mountains hiking with the poodle and other dogs, babysitting when our parents travel to South America, Mrs Bergstrom is always a part of our life. Fond memories, she will be missed dearly. Sam Boyd

“ Whenever I miss June, I also remember how fortunate I was that she was an important part of my life. I wouldn't trade those moments for anything. June led by example and left her family a tremendous legacy to follow.
