“ Mom was one of the kindest, most gentle persons I had ever met. Even with her advanced age, and limited eyesight, she was always doing everything she could to help and "take care" of all of her family and friends. Especially me, the baby of the family. A large empty spot will be in the lives of all of those who were lucky enough to know her well. May she rest happily forever in Gods hands. We love you mom.

“ Alice, you will always be in my heart. You are so special to me, and I remember all the good times we shared. Goin' gambling at Deadwood, family dinners and holiday gatherings, playing board games, watching the Broncos every Sunday...lots of great times. You are loved and will be missed by all who have known you. God bless you, always and forever. Love, Cheryl
