

Alice Joyce Jeffers

May 16, 1918 - December 26, 2017

Alice Joyce Jeffers was born near Devil's Tower, Wyoming, to Hans and Francis von Kaenel. She was the second of five siblings: Rolfe, Kenneth, Jean and Doris. Later, her half sister, Hazel, came along. All preceded her in death. After graduating from Sedgwick High School, Joyce, as she preferred to be called, moved to Fort Collins where she met and married Rusty Jeffers. Joyce was a long time member of First Presbyterian Church. There she participated in a sewing group for many years. She worked more than 40 years at Forney Industries with her sister, Jean, and daughter, Glenda Anderson.

In addition to her job, she baked and decorated cakes for the church, weddings, parties, and birthdays for family and friends.

Joyce was a talented artist as a painter, seamstress, and baker. A favorite annual task was designing and painting wooden Christmas tree ornaments to be distributed at the family Christmas tree hunt.

Whether near or far away, her grandchildren anxiously awaited the beautiful sugar cookies she baked and decorated every holiday.

Her family was her greatest joy. Rusty and Joyce had three children. Delbert, Glenda Anderson and Janet Tucay. Rusty and Delbert preceded her in death. In addition to her daughters, she is survived by daughter-in-law, Mary Ann Jeffers and sons-in-law, Terry Anderson and Pons Tucay. She had nine grandchildren and numerous great and great grandchildren.

Joyce always looked forward to family gatherings and the joyful singing that was likely to happen with grandson, Scott Jeffers, in attendance.

“ Janice, I am so'm sorry your Mom has passed. I think of you often when I am with my Mom. My Mom continues to be well. The other day when we were at a friends memorial she said, " I'm sorry Betty is not here. She loved a party. I want to have my wake before I die!" So I think I will have an open house for her 98th birthday in May. Love you. Sandy Walker

I agree. Joyce was my great aunt and sister of Ella Jean my grandmother. I was blessed to have my great Aunt Joyce bake and decorate the most beautiful cakes for birthdays and anniversary celebrations for family members. I was honored to have her attend my 40th birthday party and have her join my parents' Jim and Sharon's 50th wedding anniversary celebration. Joyce is and was a very special and talented lady. While it's sad that she is gone, I feel happy and peaceful that she is with her wonderful sister and my grandmother Ella Jean in god's grace.
