“ I will miss you dearly grandpa. I remember going to California and you whistling "Three Little Fishes" not just in one tone but three tones. We had to stop at every hotel with a pool and if it meant driving to the next town you did it. I wanted to say how much I love our family and what you have taught us. Love, kindness, respect, bear hugs, and living each day for what it is. But the most important thing I have learned was the strong bond that we all have for one another. You are always with me day or night. I love you all very much!
