“ I am a dog lover, but was very afraid of dogs when I was 3 or 4. When I was that age and we visited my grandmother and Aunt Alvina in Fort Collins, Alvina would exchange garden vegetables with a neighbor who had a St. Bernard. Alvina would pick me up when we went there, as I was afraid of the dog. Once when we went, she told me that the dog was very friendly and she wasn't going to pick me up because the dog wouldn't hurt me. Well, the dog licked my face, wagged its tail, and I was a dog lover from that day--thanks, Aunt Alvina! Sending loving thoughts and prayers.
Love, Mary
