“ I remember Amelia stopping and greeting me on her way to work. Her mother, Teresa, would call to me across the alley for some fresh pizzelles. They always gave us Easter Bread and grapes in their seasons. I always think of those days with fondness. I thank Amelia and the entire Saracino family for being so kind to me. Love,

“ I remember "Amy" my younger sister's name, too from visiting my dad, Donovan Cammack at Public Service Company. She always had a smile and time for youngsters trying to be real grown up. When Public Service was downtown, I used to walk from our house so Dad and I could have coffee which I didn't drink, but I'd have something while Dad had coffee. If Dad wasn't there, Amy always seemed to know how soon he would be back. She would let me sit at Dad's desk while I waited and talk to me. I guess the reason I loved her was she never treated me like "a kid." I grew up, moved away and lost touch, but I remember her most fondly. Bless you all and know that you are in my prayers.

“ Mimi and her family were long time friends of our family. Mimi was my Godmother. I am grateful that I went to see her last fall her brother Louie was visiting her at the time. Knowing that Mimi was here with us was always a great comfort to me she will be sorely missed.

“ My memories of "Mimi" include walking through her backyard vinyard prior to harvest. She always wanted to pave the alley to the east of the house--the wind would raise such dust--but the cost was so high. Another fond memory I have is just after she had her white carpet installed in her living room, our whole family--my Father Albert, my Mother Wanda, my Brother Alan, and myself--all went over to see her. My Father installed the candeliers in the living room. It transformed the entire room into a glowing-crystal-energy filled almost holy! place. It was an appropriately holy place for a holy person. I shall never forget Mimi and her influence in my life. Some years later, Mimi was bowling in Greeley, CO. She wanted a meeting of a couple of her neices and myself at the bowling alley. This was about in 1978 or '79. I showed up and so did a niece and we had a nice evening watching the team bowl.
