“ Sometimes we don't know why things happen , But God is in control of everything . Be comforted to know that my dear friend Amparo no longer suffers. To the children of Amparo it is so hard to loose your mother. Remember all the good times and always keep her memories close. May you all be blessed and comforted by the friends that were in her life.

“ Death is always hard, but I truly feel she is in a better place. She has suffered long enough. She has always been good and accepting of me. She welcomed me as her own. I have nothing but good memories of her. I will miss her.

“ I remember growing up with Amparo. We went to Church together and always hung out. Her and her mom Vera would come over to my grandmas everyday. We grew to be good friends and would go dancing on weekends. She was an awesome person and I'm glad to say she was one of my friends. I will surely miss you Amparo. May you be resting in peace and walking amongst the Angels. I love you and you will be in my thoughts and prayers always. May God Bless Your Family through this hard time and always.
