“ My sister was a very kind soft spoken person. Growing up I remember that she enjoyed reading so I hope she continued to enjoy that pastime. I know that her children, grandchildren, and husband were the most important people in her life. Whenever she spoke of them it was with pride. Sadly I did not see my sister much over the years due to the distance in our households but she is my sister and I loved her dearly. It saddens me that I am unable to be there when she goes on her journey to God but I hold the memory of her close to my heart and I know that Armando will be waiting for her with open arms. Go in peace my sister, I love you.
