“ Our deepest and most sincere condolences to your family. I can not express the loss I feel for this wonderful man. He helped me through many hard times with love, kidness and a wise word to carry with me. I know he and my mom are gearing up for the upcoming softball season, so many years have passed since we had to seperate them, poor umpires and players in heaven! I know the years have gone by but never the love we feel for you. Lena, Gianna, Analia and Ix Chel Bueno
