

Arthur Swanson

October 7, 2005

Arthur B. Swanson died Oct. 7, 2005, at Poudre Valley Hospital after a long illness. He was born March 10, 1943, in St. Paul, Minn. He attended Cornell University, majoring in English. After graduation he moved to Fort Collins and was a copy editor for the Triangle Review for some years. Music, art and history were his special interests. He is survived by his sister and brother-in-law, Hildy and George Morgan. A private memorial service will be held at a later date