“ I give you this one thought to keep - I am with you still - I do not sleep. I am a thousand winds that blow, I am the diamond glints on snow, I am the sunlight on ripened grain, I am the gentle autumn rain. When you awaken in the morning's hush, I am the sweet uplifting rush, of quiet birds in circled flight. I am the soft stars that shine at night. Do not think of me as gone - I am with you still in each new dawn. - Traditional Native American Prayer

“ Mom, you are now at peace! I ask God to take you under his wing and tell Poppa to be nice to you. It was a bumpy ride but you made it. Rest in eternal peace until we meet again. I love you and I asked God to thank you for adopting me and Dan and taking care of us! Your memory will remain in my heart!
