“ My aunt Barbra (Sis) was my moms older sister . I remember one time as a child going to her house for Christmas . My dad was going up the stairs carrying the dessert my mom Linda made. As my dad went up the stairs he had tripped. The desserts went flying in the air and landed on my dad. My mom was upset about it . But my aunt Barb came out to see what all the noise was about. As she seen my dad she tried so hard not to laugh but could not help herself but to laugh. All of us kids were sad that we weren't going to get dessert. But aunt Barb had made apple pie and pumpkin pie knowing my dad was kind of clumsy . I still have that vision of her laughing looking at my dad wearing the dessert that landed on him. I will miss her tremendously . May she rest in peace and may God comfort all of us from the loss of such a caring and loving person.
