“ I enjoyed working with Betty while in the College of Liberal Arts. She was always willing to share her wealth of knowledge and was an excellent mentor. I still have budgetisms running through my head all these years later that she told me. My condolences to Elden, Travis and Luke

“ Betty was my college roommate at CSU in 1967/68. We ended up on very different paths in very different places but we were friends forever. Over all the distance and time, she was important to me. Peace.

To your family, our condolences. Especially to Elden, Travis and Luke...hope you will be comforted by all your personal and special memories...Betty would want that. Love you from me and our family.
