

Bill D. Graham

September 2, 1936 - October 11, 2016

Bill D. Graham passed away on October 11, 2016 in Fort Collins, Colorado following his courageous battle against liver cancer. Bill was born September 2, 1936 to J.E. Graham and Lorita Sparkman Graham.

He spent his entire adult career in the construction field working through the ranks from laborer, carpenter, foreman, general foreman, assistant superintendent to project and site superintendent. His projects ranged from small tenant finishes to ground up construction and high-end finishes on banks, medical, churches, hotels and historical renovations, as well as industrial warehouse and civil projects. He demanded uncompromising quality on every job.

He had a love for ISC softball and enjoyed many years playing on various teams and playing in several World Tournaments. His hobbies included being a passionate artist, using oils, pen & ink, and wood. He also enjoyed fishing and hunting.

He is survived by his wife of 53 years, Laura - children Todd, Wren, Allen, and

Tiffany

Graham. His grandchildren include Drake Marion, Reese Graham, Aaron Graham, Chantel

Graham, and T.J. Fredrick. He is survived by several brothers, Jack, Bobby (Joy), Nick (Marva), Dale (Karen), and one sister Betty Kay (Gary), as well as several nieces and nephews.

Preceding Bill in death are his parent and a brother Kenneth.

He will be missed by many - his family and friends through the years, but will always be in our hearts, souls and minds. A celebration of life will be planned at a later date.

“ "Wait till I tell my Big Brother Bill! There were 7 Graham kids, Bill being the oldest. All 6 of us used that phrase many times growing up. He was our hero. No one "messed" with the Graham kids. If they didn't know you were a Graham, they did when you said, "Wait till I tell my Big Brother Bill." Every one knew our Big Brother Bill. He will be missed.
