

Brad White

April 24, 1939 - September 19, 2013

Charles Bradley White died September 19th with his wife and daughter by his side. Born April of 1939, in Minneapolis Minnesota to Wallace and Ruth, he was know, to friends as Brad. Brad attended Trinidad Junior College in 1957, graduating with a degree in anthropology. He married in 1960 to Mary Jo Spence and had 4 children. He married again in 1991 to Cathy Fisher, and spent the rest of his life with her. He was a lifelong lover of cats. Brad is survived by his wife, six children and four grandchildren. A Graveside Service will be held Thursday, 1:30 p.m., Highland Cemetery, Wellington, Colorado.

Tribute Wall

LM

“ Cathy, I am so sorry for your loss. We found the obit for Brad when we were looking for contact information. There is an archaeologist working on Trinchera Cave and I was telling him about Brad's photos and the trip you made to the site. My prayers are with you and your family. Loretta

Loretta Martin - January 20, 2014 at 12:00 AM

SE

“ Oh God, guide him, protect him, make of him a shining lamp, and a brilliant star. Thou art the mighty and powerful. Amen”

Sarah Eppler - October 02, 2013 at 12:00 AM

SE

“ Oh God, guide him, protect him, make of him a shining lamp, and a brilliant star. Thou art the mighty and powerful. Amen”

Sarah Eppler - October 02, 2013 at 12:00 AM

AA

“ Kat and kids, I am so sorry about your dad and grandpa. I wish I could take the pain away and make this journey easier for all of you but that is impossible. I will always remember the wonderful sense of humor Brad had and am thankful that his passed this gift onto you.

Amy Abbott - September 28, 2013 at 12:00 AM

AW

“ He taught me a love of history, and gave me an appreciation of critical thinking. He will be missed.

Aaron White - September 24, 2013 at 12:00 AM