

Carson Clift

December 27, 2006

Carson Clift, 13-year-old son of Elisabeth Koehler and Kent Clift, and brother to Annie K. Clift, died in his home wearing flannel jammies, under flannel sheets and down comforters. He died the morning of Dec. 27, 2006, embraced by his family with his cat Biscuit by his side. Carson was an eighth-grader at Cache la Poudre Junior High. Our heartfelt thanks go out to our loving neighbors, friends, family, the Fort Collins community, Children's Hospital Oncology Clinic and CLP Junior High for all your support throughout his six month journey with brain cancer. A special thanks to Andrea Stockover, Carson's best friend, who stood by him every step of his journey. May your heart soon heal. An informal memorial service will be at 1 p.m., Saturday, at Bohlender Funeral Chapel, 121 W. Olive Street, Fort Collins.

ADVERTISEMENT Memorial contributions may be made to the Carson Clift Memorial Fund in care of Bohlender Funeral Chapel.