“ Cecil would always come into Vern's for his coffee and we would spend longer than I should have being on the clock talking to him. He shared so many stories of times in the military. When I was going through a bit of a rough patch he was so quick to cheer me up. He would always share new music with me which I always loved. I'll never forget our drive up to the VA hospital for his eye surgery and just enjoying his company and all the fun stories he shared.

“ We ALWAYS looked for Cecil when we went to the Mountain Café and Vern's and ALWAYS enjoyed sitting with him and talking with him about all that he had seen and what he currently thought about the world :). We learned a lot from him about being good to each other and accepting of others. We are really going to miss the conversation.
