“ Grandpa you will be missed, but I know that I will see you in heaven again someday. Until then I know that you are watching over us from above. You taught me how to fish and how to craft wood into some of the most beautiful things these are skills that I will always carry with me. I love you.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Mrs. Shannon, it's never easy saying goodbye to someone you loved for over 38 years. The Bible however, shows us that this isn't a forever goodbye. God gives us the promise that we will be able to see our loved ones again. Please find some strength and comfort from this in your difficult days ahead.

Also, look forward to telling our children what a great man you were in so many different ways as well as all the things you taught their daddy. Much love to you, Grandpa! May you rest in peace. Someday we will greet you on the other side.

“ I pray that you find comfort from these words - a description of the final resting place for all of God's people: Revelation 7:14-17 “These are they who have come out of the great tribulation; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. 15 Therefore, “they are before the throne of God and serve him day and night in his temple; and he who sits on the throne will shelter them with his presence. 16 ‘Never again will they hunger; never again will they thirst. The sun will not beat down on them,’ nor any scorching heat. 17 For the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd; ‘he will lead them to springs of living water.’ ‘And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.’” God's blessings to you all.

“ I did not really know Cecil, but I have seen enough of the positive impact he had on those around him to know he was a good man. Our prayers are with you all.

“ Always see you later and never goodbye to an amazing man who took me on as his own blood. Swatted my behind when a lesson learned was necessary and a genuine smile and words of pride when they were due. Teaching me how to tie my shoes and listening to me learn various instruments without shushing me. Your honorable values, beliefs, and great words of wisdom will be greatly missed.
