

Charlene P. Shramek

November 9, 1954 - February 4, 2014

Charlene P. Shramek, 59, of Loveland, died February 4, 2014 at McKee Medical Center. Mrs. Shramek was born November 9, 1954 in Endicott, New York to Gene and Elizabeth Wright. Charlene married Joseph "Joe" J. Shramek, Jr. Mrs. Shramek moved to Colorado in 1980 and has lived in Loveland for 28 years. Charlene was very involved as a children's Sunday School teacher. She was involved in many volunteer programs in a variety of local churches which she and Joe attended. Charlene was everybody's 'mama bear'. She enjoyed hiking, was an avid walker, loved picnics in the mountains, and loved the outdoors. She was a very compassionate person and always wanted to help anyone she could. Survivors include her husband, Joe; son, Adam Kate Shramek of Seattle, Washington; mother, Elizabeth of Harpursville, New York; brother, Mark Wright of Harpursville, New York. Preceding Charlene in death was her father, Gene Wright. A Memorial Service will be held at Timberline Church, 2908 S. Timberline Rd. on Friday 10:00 a.m. Reception to follow. Memorial contributions can be made to the family of Charlene Shramek in care of Bohlender Funeral Chapel, 121 W. Olive St., Ft. Collins, CO 80524.

“Charlene was a wonderful, loving person whose passing leaves a huge hole in our lives and the lives of our family. It meant a great deal to me how she loved and welcomed our Kate into her family. She took care of her kids. She loved in a way that was, "full out." She was a devout Christian whose faith was an inspiration to me. Her sense of humor was the best. Joe, our prayers and love to you at this difficult time. Linda
