

Charles George Rhodes, Jr.

October 20, 1921 - February 4, 2011

Charles George Rhodes, Jr. of Fort Collins passed away on February 4, 2011. He was born in Alma, Michigan on October 20, 1921. Chuck served in the Air Force during World War II. He married Cris Riel on November 1, 1947. Together they ran a cattle ranch in Kingman, Arizona. He received his Bachelor of Science degree from the University of California at Davis in agriculture economics and worked as a bank manager in California before moving his family to Fort Collins in 1966 to become a property manager. He is survived by his loving wife, Cris; four children: Torrey Gray, Charles George Rhodes, III, Robin Schottleutner, William Riel Rhodes, their spouses, fifteen grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. Chuck loved his Lord Jesus. For many years he and Cris taught the two year old Sunday School Class at the First Baptist Church of Fort Collins. He also enjoyed singing in the choir. He will be greatly missed by his family. A Memorial Service will be held at First Baptist Church, 900 E. Prospect on Monday at 11:00 a.m. A Private Graveside service with Military Honors by the Fort Collins All Veterans Honor Guard will be held. Pastor Dale Williams will officiate. In lieu of flowers, Memorial contributions for the Children's Reconstructive Surgery Fund in Kenya can be made to Kapsowar Mission Hospital in care of Bohlender Funeral Chapel, 121 W. Olive St., Ft. Collins, CO 80524.

Tribute Wall

EL

“ I wanted to let you know that many thoughts and prayers are with you in this time of sorrow. I truly enjoyed the years that I worked with Chuck through the Apartment Association. It was a true pleasure to meet up again and share many occasions at Heritage Christian School. With Sincere Sympathy Elaine Lauffer

Elaine Lauffer - February 09, 2011 at 12:00 AM

SW

“ I was so sorry to learn that Chuck passed away. He was an incredibly kind man-- a true gentleman. I know he was a wonderful, loving father-in-law to my cousin Laura, too. My thoughts and prayers are with your family during this difficult time. Sharon Wicker

Sharon Weitzel Wicker - February 09, 2011 at 12:00 AM

JB

“ Bill, Laura and the Rhodes family, please accept our heart felt condolences for the loss of your families father, Charles Rhodes. We know you will find solace in knowing he is now with our Lord in Heaven. Our thought are with you and we wish your entire family a safe return home. Jim and Joyce Brewer and family

Jim and Joyce Brewer - February 06, 2011 at 12:00 AM