“ My earliest memories of Uncle Chuck were when we were relocating between Virginia Beach, Virginia; Charleston, South Carolina; and Great Lakes, Illinois and the parents would take us to Hastings, Nebraska for visits between being stationed at the different naval bases. Chuck was a teenager during some of those times, but he always managed to take the time out of his day to play tag and chase with Joe, Tim, Rob, and myself. The fact that he took the time to entertain children speaks volumes for the kind of human being Uncle Chuck was. He will be greatly missed by many. Prayers and God Bless.

“ Uncle Chuck was such a very special man. He will be missed greatly. The way he could make people laugh was next level. He was always the 1st person to like and comment on my art posts. Some might consider it a small gesture, but it truly meant the world to me. Sending love to all of us who are grieving. May his memory be a blessing.

“ I could have spent countless hours listening to Chuck's stories and jamming tunes. I will never have anyone who could open my mind to great music like he could. Every time I hear a good song, I will think of him.
