Celebrating Cherie's Beautiful Life

Cheryl Johanna Louise Wright passed away 12:40am Saturday, January 13th, at McKee Medical Center, Loveland, Colorado. Cherie was born to Robert and Hettie in California, November, 1990. She spent her growing up years in Terre Haute, Indiana. In high school, she moved to Fort Collins, Colorado. Shortly thereafter, she met William "Will" Wright. They married August 15, 2009. The following year, they welcomed Gabriel into their family. Victoria followed suit the year after. Will and Cherie spent their marriage of 14 years in Fort Collins, Colorado. Cherie was a vibrant, creative spirit and a friend to all. She was a loving wife, mother, sister, sister-in-law, and friend. She will be sorely missed.

She is survived by her husband and children, her mother, Hettie, and step father, Darrick Hueber, her father, Robert Switzer, and step mother, PJ, her brother, Robbie (Kelsey) Switzer, and sisters, Ruby, and Cora and numerous other relatives.

She was preceded in death by her uncle, William Cash, and her great grandmothers, Madonna Key and Anna Beth Welch.

Services celebrating Cherie's life will be held 10am, Saturday, January 20, 2024 at LifePointe Church, 900 E. Prospect.

A Go Fund Me has been started to help with Cherie's medical expenses. You may go to <https://www.gofundme.com/f/celebrating-cheries-beautiful-life>

“ Following our mission trip to Japan in 2008, she was always my "Cherie-chan" and I was her "Mama-san". One of my most precious memories was her wedding to Will. I had the privilege and delight to host it at my house. Even after I moved away from Ft Collins, we stayed in touch. She was a special soul and a sweet friend. She will always be missed!

“ Cherie was my boss at 953, she never felt like a boss though. She was always happy, always outgoing, always friendly. She was strong and smart and she knew it. She taught me claims and I'll never forget the things she taught me about life. I remember her talking about her husband. She said she found Mr. "Right" but didn't even think about making that joke till they were already married. Cherie will be sorely missed... love you girl
