

Christine Monica Miller

March 29, 1955 - July 6, 2009

Christine M. Miller, 54, of Fort Collins passed away on July 6, 2009. She was born and raised in the Chicago area and graduated from Northwestern University in 1977. It was there that she met her future husband Lawrence W. Miller. They were married in 1981 and moved to Colorado to start a new life. Christine was an out going person and very artistic. She loved cooking, her cats and camping in the mountains with her husband. Christine battled Multiple Sclerosis most of her adult life. In spite of this painful and debilitating disease, she never complained. Her courage and strength were an inspiration to all who knew her. She will be dearly missed. Christine is survived by her husband Larry; her parents Nicholas and Tony Stashko of Arlington Heights, IL; her brother Edward and family of Chapel Hill, NC; and her brother Michael and family of Scottsdale, AZ. A Memorial Mass will be held on Wednesday, July 15 2009 at St. Joseph Catholic Church in Fort Collins at 10:00 AM. Memorial contributions can be made to the National Multiple Sclerosis Society in care of Bohlender Funeral Chapel, 121 W. Olive St., Ft. Collins, CO 80524.

Tribute Wall

AD

“ During my time of helping Chris at the swimming pool...I found it inspiring to know her. She was brave, optimistic and intelligent. She spoke so often of her husband and parents and brothers and their families. She was truly inspiring. It was also a privilege to meet Nick and Tony as we passed through Illinois and stopped to visit them. Love and prayers are we can offer as words cannot express such a loss. Annette Demeyer

annette demeyer - July 15, 2009 at 12:00 AM

PJ

“ Larry, my deepest condolences on Chris' passing. I am sorry that her passing was the only relief from the grips of MS. But I know that your unwavering love, support and dedication to her well being sustained her through difficult times. Pam Johanssen

Pam Johanssen - July 14, 2009 at 12:00 AM