“ To Cindy's Family, May the Lord be with you during this very difficult time, and may you find peace, strength and comfort in the days ahead. I want to share with you my friendship with Cindy. I met her approximately ten years ago, at a family gathering. I can remember her big smile and uplifting spirit. She was a gentle soul that simply radiated with happiness. I saw her infrequently as the years went by due to circumstances of life, hardships and struggles, but the times when we would run into each other were genuine. A big smile, a hug, and well wishes. Often sharing loving conversations about her children she so dearly loved. She had a heart of gold and that is what I will always remember. I am saddened that her lifetime on this earth was short, but I feel confident in knowing that God has a place for her, because she was so worthy of his love. May God Bless and Keep You. Sincerely, Amy Barraza
