

Clarice "Kay" Cushatt

August 17, 1939 - July 13, 2013

Kay was born to Olive and Fred Haitz in Cripple Creek, Colorado. Kay married Bob Cushatt on 3/20/1965 on the first day of spring and moved to Fort Collins the same year. Kay and Bob have two daughters, four grandsons, one granddaughter, three great grandsons and numerous nieces and nephews. Kay was Bob's office manager when he was an Allstate Insurance agent in Fort Collins until he retired in 1998. Kay loved traveling the world, exercising, reading and spending quality time with her family and large circle of friends. Kay was a classy woman and will be missed greatly by all who knew her. Kay has been cremated and a memorial service will be announced at a later date. If you wish, donations in Kay's name to the "Ram Strength cancer foundation" and Pathways hospice in care of Bohlender Funeral Chapel, 121 W Olive St. Fort Collins, Colorado 80524 would be appreciated. Kay left this earth too soon but is in a much better place.

“ When Kay and I were in the same exercise class, we had such a fun time, if exercising can ever be fun She had a wonderful sense of humor, and I think all of us considered ourselves lucky to have had the privilege of knowing and associating with such a classy lady. We missed her when she left our class and exercised at home, and will continue to miss her in our lives. My condolences and prayers are for all the family in this time of grief.
