“ I have so many great memories of Aunt Cleota and Uncle Roy. I always enjoyed their visits in Iowa and I thought their RV was the neatest thing ever! I will especially miss Aunt Cleota's great laugh.

“ I remember looking forward to Uncle Roy and Aunt Cleota coming to visit every summer when we lived at Delta. It was always fun to listen to all the stories of old times told around the kitchen table. I remember all the craft items that was always brought by both of them. I still remember the spray can cover that was in Mom's bathroom that Aunt Cleota made for Mom. Uncle Roy had a bean spoon that always hung on the wall. We all will miss the hearty laugh and big smiles.

“ Growing up and spending time with my PaPa and Grandma on their farm was so special because it meant I was able to run next door and spend time with Cleota. She was a very special friend to my grandparents and to our entire family. I will always remember her beautiful smile, warm hugs and contagious laugh. I'm so sorry for yor loss, my heart goes out to you and your family. She will be missed. Lee Varra-Nelson Leslee Hull
