

Connie Gebhart

February 4, 1938 - March 13, 2022

Connie Gebhart, 84, of Fort Collins, CO went home to be with the Lord on March 13, 2022

Connie Kinsley was born in Oakley, KS on February 4, 1938. She spent most of her younger years growing up in Salina, KS. In high school she met the love of her life, Jim Gebhart, and they were married after Connie graduated in 1956. Over the years, Connie, Jim and their 3 children moved back and forth from KS to CO for Jim's work transfers and finally settling in Fort Collins in 1972.

Connie was a wonderful homemaker, cook and seamstress. She made many beautiful quilts and clothing for her family and friends. She loved cooking many delicious dinners and preparing large meals for family gatherings, especially at Thanksgiving and Christmas.

Her pride and joy was her husband, children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. She also adored her little dog, Abbey.

Connie and Jim spent over 65 years together in marriage and enjoyed traveling, taking cruises and spending time with family. Connie and Jim attended Front Range Baptist Church in Fort Collins.

She is survived by her loving husband Jim, sons Doug and Scott Gebhart, daughter Cheryl Ronay, brother Jerry Kinsley, their 8 grandchildren: Michelle, JD, Lucas, Rachel, Megan, Adam, Kendra, Jacey and their 8 great grandchildren.

A service will be held on Saturday March 19 at 1:00 pm at Front Range

Baptist Church in Fort Collins. Interment will follow at Resthaven Memory Gardens Cemetery.

“ So sorry for the loss of your dear Connie, Jim. Our sincere sympathy goes out for you and your family. I first met Connie in The Smocking Guild. Probably at your house at the corner of Swallow in Ft Collins. 30+ yrs ago since Caleb, our youngest is now 34. Connie was such a super nice, hospitable lady. She loved and cared for her family bunches. You are in our prayers. May God lead you and bring you much peace and comfort

Thank you for your comforting words Jeanne and Brice. The Smocking Guild was always special to her. Jim and family

Doug Gebhart - March 19, 2022 at 09:09 AM

I am so late in catching up. Connie and Jim and family were special people and I am sorry to say we lost touch. Connie was a dear friend through our Shawnee, Ks. days and our daughter enjoyed Cheryl and the boys. Connie was a sweet, loving friend, mother and wife. Paul and I send our deepest condolences to the entire Gebhart family.
