“ Kay and Ed, Dale was family to us as you two are. We will always remember Dale's smile and easy going manner. What a joy when we were together. And he was a top hand in every skill he tried - carpenter, electrician - he could do them all. Such a soul will forever be missed and never forgotten.

“ Kay, Dad, & Cheryl family, I'm so sorry for your loss. I literally found out about Dale when I went to my brother's for my Birthday. Shock, sorrow, and disbelief filled my heart. I enjoyed the time I spent with him. The nicest guy. Always wanted to get to know him better. Life happened & I haven't made it back to WY - I figured I had time - we're about the same age. Kay, you're an excellent Mom & His love for you was evident. Dad, great Father, know how close you two were - truly a son. Cheryl, I can't imagine anything worse - I'm so close to Jeff - great syblings are so special. You're all on my mind & in my wishes & prayers. Love you!

“ Dear Kay and Cheryl, Jack and I have often remembered our times together when the children were young. Dale was the shy one but still made us laugh. We have lost touch through the years but not our fond memories. We are saddened by the loss of Dale and for the pain you are going through. May God be with you during these dark days and bring you light in the future.

“ Dear Kay and Cheryl, I am so sorry to hear about Dale! I was just telling someone the other day about the mad rush to the hospital we all took after that big branch landed on his head behind your house. So many fond memories of playing at your house, riding bikes, camping in the back yard. I always think of Dale with a smirky smile on his sweet face. All the best to you, my condolences and a hug from afar.

“ Dale was good at everything he ever did, it seemed. Yet he was as modest as they come. He was a loyal, caring friend - the kind of friend who looked for ways to make your life better, easier, or brighter. I will miss the little things... the shared silliness, talking about music, appreciating a sunrise. You'll be greatly missed, buddy. I hope peace found you.
