“ You are all in our prayers family. Sorry we cannot be there to lend support, Dan was such a fun caring uncle. We have not been able to see you all in awhile but always stayed up to date through Facebook. I remember visiting with mom and Ron when we were younger getting spoiled, playing Ms. Pac man and he always made us laugh!

“ This man was so amazing! Always had a warm heart and kind words for me. I lost my dad over 20 years ago and Dan told me to call him dad. He always gave me tight hugs and dad advice. He will never be forgotten by this girl. Love you Dan. My heart goes out to mama Paula and kids. Please stay strong and positive as you always are “ Dan was always one of my favorite people to care for, going back 5 or 6 years, up to now. No matter how he was feeling or how his day was going, he was always sure to put a smile on my face. I will miss our conversations about life and the stories he was always sharing. His warm smile and loud jokes could always turn my worst of days around. You are forever loved and will be forever missed!

“ Sorry for your loss! May God bring you healing, peace, comfort, and understanding in this time of hurt. And may the joy of knowing the amazing parade and celebration taking place for Dan's return home to God's kingdom overwhelm you In Jesus's name! My short time being around Dan are powerful memories I have often shared in the highest regard over the years. First thing He said to me when Tavis introduced us was “ Do want to try and bend this again?” As he thumbed his nose! None Tougher! Much respect! He is missed and never forgotten!

“ Cliff and I were blessed on one very hot July 4th with Dan and Paulette parked in front of our home. God saw it to bless us with two amazing people who truly love each other. Then we meet Tim bring our mom oxygen, what a sweet caring man, much like his parents. I can only imagine Travis is just as wonderful. This family blessed so many people with their giving hearts.

Dan will be so deeply missed and will be forever in so many people's hearts and prayers. Rest In peace you precious angel. Cliff and Christina Chambers “ Great loss for me. Did not see Dan as much as I should have. He helped me start a boxing club in Loveland in 1980 when I was transferred there. He brought his sons and boxers to the Loveland Lake park to spar.. Memories are here. God Bless his family and friends.
