“ Hi Susie,

My name is Bob Berg. I met Dan first day of college as he was a dorm buddy a few doors down from me. Dan assimilated into our group (Bellevue, Nebraska gang) and hung with the best of us. Dan was a special person from the start. While growing as adults together during college, lifetime bonds were made. Playing pool, listening to music, and just hanging out. Boy, did we play a lot of pool. Also, I used to let Dan use my small camera to take to concerts - when it was not 'approved'. He had an eye for the lens from what I can remember.

I visited Dan when we both lived in California in the early nineties, and within the past year, reached out to him on social media. I have family in Colorado as well as other friends in Ft. Collins, so had promised to visit if and when I had the chance. I am deeply saddened with Dan's passing, and will always remember him as a friend and collegiate peer.

I liked the comment about him seeing Bruce over 40 times. I saw Springsteen once, but it was at Red Rocks, so that counts as 2. Dan wasn't there but boy did he want to hear all about it. But Dan was a fan. I remember when the album 'Nebraska' came out in fall of 1982. Dan came over, holding his brand new vinyl, with that broad grin - ear to ear. Up to that point, may have been the happiest day of his life. Springsteen! Nebraska! We listened for hours. Those are the memories that never fade.

I hope that you and your children can find peace in knowing that he was a special part of your lives.

*Sincerely,
Bob*

“ Dan was an incredible friend, whom I shared many wonderful experiences with in high school. We met at Creighton Prep and shared a love of soccer, music and having fun! We hung out together often, enjoying Tom Petty & The Heartbreakers, the Rolling Stones, hanging out at local electronics stores (always wishing about owning the best stereo equipment) and so much more. He always seemed to have a 2L of Pepsi along for the ride and we were teammates and friends on both the Prep and Club soccer teams, both playing forward. We often played in games together and Dan was always amazing at scoring goals, especially with his head!

He and I went to see the Rolling Stones in concert together in St. Louis in 1978 after I won some tickets from a local radio station. My brother was not happy, when I chose Dan over him, but that's what friends did for each other. We both loved the Rolling Stones and it was the "Tour 78" concert tour and we got to experience them together. It was an amazing night, even though they came on stage 2 hours late because Bill Wyman had fallen off the stage the night before in St. Paul, MN. I remember it just like it was the other day.

Following high school we both went our separate ways, Dan to Nebraska and me to Kansas, and then on with our lives. We would see each other at various Prep reunions or other times when we were both back in Omaha and I was so excited to see him last summer when we were both back for our 35 year high school reunion! While obviously dealing with the challenges from his earlier stroke, he was so positive. We talked all about the past and all the great times we had shared. He talked about his family and it was all pretty amazing.

Like everyone, I was saddened to hear of Dan's passing, but we all know that he is in a good place. He was a terrific person, a good father and husband and an awesome friend to me for many years. The amazing memories I shared with Dan will last forever and I wish I could have been with you all to celebrate the life of this truly special person.

Warm regards,

Tom Bene'
