

David Guerrero

May 2, 2008

David "Cheetah" Guerrero, 76, of Fort Collins died May 2, 2008, at Poudre Valley Hospital. Mr. Guerrero was born Dec. 29, 1931, in Fort Collins to Jesus Guerrero and Maria Martinez Guerrero. Cheetah lived all his life in Fort Collins. He had various construction jobs and was a janitor at Holy Family Catholic Church, a member of Holy Family and the Knights of Columbus. Survivors include his former wife, Marilyn Barnett Guerrero; a son, Paul Sanchez and his wife, Maria, of Fort Collins; a stepson, David Sanchez of Fort Collins; nine brothers and sisters, Manuel Mesa, Elmer Amelio Guerrero, Beatrice Sanchez, Isabelle Martinez, Jesse "Big Wes" Guerrero, Lupe Guerrero, Ramona Martin, Virginia "Gina" Serrano and Pete Guerrero; 12 grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews. Preceding Cheetah in death are a sister, Rosita Guerrero; a brother, Benny "Little Wes" Guerrero; and his parents. A Rosary and Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 10 a.m. Wednesday at Holy Family Catholic Church. Father Damian de la Cruz, C.R. will officiate the service. Friends may send condolences to the family at www.bohlenderfuneralchapel.com.

Tribute Wall

MM

“ Dave was a great friend even as I was a child hide carrying and bricklaying with him. He worked for my dad for many years it was always very loyal. As dad got older he always came over and checked up on him, mowed his lawn for him and any errands that he needed. He was always a very thoughtful person. I sure miss him.

Mayor Ray Martinez - February 26, 2022 at 07:44 PM

MM

I meant to say “hod carrying “. Dave really taught me the ropes as an apprentice hod carrier. He never had an unkind word to say about anyone.

Mayor Ray Martinez - February 26, 2022 at 07:46 PM