

Dawn D. Weimer

June 11, 1943 - February 20, 2017

My dear wife, Dawn, exited this world for one much higher and loftier on Monday, February 20, 2017 leaving behind her loving husband, Tom of 53 years; son, Heath and his wife, Susan and Heath's only child/son, Wynston. Dawn was/is a very well known Bronze Sculptor living in Loveland, CO and leaves behind a legacy that few in this world will ever leave. Dawn loved sculpting so much and she always gave the credit for her talent to the Lord God. We already miss Dawn immensely but know that we will join her in Glory when our time on this earth comes to an end. Both of Dawn's parents (Morton and Elsie Gudge Griswold) preceded her in death. Dawn only wanted her to be remembered for 1 thing...her overwhelming love for Jesus!

Condolences and Contributions can be sent to the Dawn Weimer Memorial Fund at Bohlander Funeral Chapel.

A Funeral Service will be held at 10:30 a.m. on Wednesday, March 1, 2017 at Bohlander Funeral Chapel. Interment Resthaven Memory Gardens Cemetery.

“ We loved Dawn and her sculptures. On a tall pedestal is Dawn's 'Show's Promise' in our living room. It is magnificent and reminds us of her true brilliance- among the greatest animal sculptors of all time! Beside it I have a print of Dawn with her arm around the filly/colt- Tom said it was her favorite work. Dawn's sweetness and love of animals radiates. She was so special.

“ Tom,
Dawn is with the Lord who has perfected her in every way as she has passed into everlasting life. Unable to be with you and your family today, we reach out with hugs and tears to comfort you and your family.

“ Dear Tom,
Dawn was such a bright light in our community. Her vision of the world was so joyful, creative and positive. We all loved the beauty she brought into our lives. I will treasure the sculptures I proudly display in our office and will always have wonderful memories of her.
Your companionship and love for her has been incredible. The devotion you have shown to her in her difficult years is a true expression of love and I have admired how you have gently taken care of her and helped her pass into the arms of the Lord. I am so sorry we all have lost her, but she will never be forgotten.
With love,

“ Tom.
You and Dawn were always special in our family. You taught my kids to rope. you and Dawn were a great comfort and support through some stressful times in my life. Dawn directed me to the Christian counselor who taught me of indwelling Christ... Dawn was so special and talented and we will miss her.

“ Tom, Heath & family,

So sorry for Dawn's passing, the Lord has taken her to a wonderful eternal life that she will enjoy forever. We have many years behind us after growing up in Fort Morgan together and the wonderful memories will always remain. Dawn through her art work will be remembered by many here on this earth. My mother use to tell me how she remembered Dawn even when she was a baby as I guess we lived close to each other. Tom, you are a Saint here on earth of how you loved and took care of Dawn through her later years.

With much love to a great friend,

“ Dawn and I lived just one block from each other during our middle school and high school years. We used to stay over at each others house, play tennis together at Baker school and walk to town for sodas or shopping through the Ben Franklin Store. We both loved art and often said we would like to design clothes or do window dressing. Guess that didn't happen! Dawn, of course, went on to sculpt and I helped my husband in his fast growing business. In 1963, Dawn was my maid of honor, and in 1964, I was her maid of honor. Unfortunately, we went our separate ways in our lives after our children were born.

God bless you, Tom and Heath, for taking care of your loved one.

The day Dawn (and you, Tom!) walked into our lives, it changed it forever.

With that incredible smile of hers set under the most expressive, intense and deeply happy eyes (I've ever seen) she shuffled up to us on her knees! She wanted to be eye to eye with my Tom, my handsome son of 4.

"I really want to sculpt your son! I need to sculpt him!" " Can I sculpt him, please??"

She won me over with her first smile! As she proceeded to profuse about my Tom's perfectly proportional face, she had me giggling and down on my knees next to her! By the end of her gushing request, our Tom was slightly confused, but proud--- a tough emotion for this particular 4 year old. My parents and I were smiling ear to lopsided ear about our imperfections, but best of all, we knew we had new friends for this life and whatever comes next!

Dawn is and was one of the most beautiful gifts ever created and bestowed upon this earth. Her bronze work will shine on observers for decades, possibly centuries to come. For those of us who were lucky enough to share her smile, well personally, it's in my heart forever!

“ You are all in my prayers, Tom, Heath, Susan and all of your family. Although I didn't know Susan personally I can only imagine what a wonderful Wife, Mother, Daughter and true woman of God that she was. I pray for peace and strength in this difficult time. Praise Jesus that we have the promise of Heaven where we can be reunited with Susan and all of our loved ones who proclaim him Saviour and King. God bless and be with you all. Your brother in Christ, Joe

“ I feel so blessed that I got to share some wonderful memories of Dawn when we were growing up in Fort Morgan. I loved all our sleep-overs, dragging Main, movies, singing, going to Riverside Park and just talking!!! Those memories will never fade and I will think of them fondly often. Her warm smile, laughter and amazing talent was a true gift from God!! I have no doubt that God has a special place for Dawn and that her amazing smile is shining down on all of us!! Rest in Peace, my dear friend!! I love you so much!!

“ Tom and family,

Dawn was an incredible lady and artist. We are all better people for having known her. Praying God will comfort you all throughout the days, months, and years ahead. "Death leaves a heartache no one can heal; love leaves a memory no one can steal." Hold tight to your memories as they will provide comfort and strength.

Our love, thoughts, and Prayers are with you.

“ Dear Tom,

We are so sorry for your loss. Dawn was an amazing artist and woman. We are so fortunate to have her sculpture of a little boy in front of the Respite Care building. Every day, at least one of our kiddos will touch his head, or pet the dog at his feet or tickle the frog in his pocket. Please know that you and your family are in our thoughts
