“ I didn't know Deb very well. I only met her a few times. She was always very friendly to me. The one time that stands out in my mind is your Birthday Party Sandy. Nicole and I arrived not knowing anyone except Deb and she greeted us with a big hug and smile. She introduced us to people and made us feel so comfortable. Deb had nothing but wonderful things to say about you and she was so excited for your party and really wanted you to be surprised. She truly did love you Sandy. May she rest easy and may you and your family get the strength that you need to get through each day. Keep the happy memories alive

“ You will always be my big sister. You taught me so many things. We were closer than any two people could be. I can't stand to think of all the time ahead of Me without you by my side. Six years living and working together flew by, we loved like sisters and we fought like sisters. But we were close like best friends. I miss you so much, we all do. You made such an impact on so many lives. You were my safe place. My road trip companion and the person I laughed the most with. I'll be sad until we're together again.... the "Deb and sandy " show..... I love you so very much. I promise to keep your memory alive as long as I am breathing.
I miss you my beautiful sister....

“ So sad to see you've left us to journey on ahead. While we made lives in different places. We were young together and you are such the unforgettable free spirit. I wish your family comfort, peace and understand to fulfill their destiny knowing your free spirit is with them. Fly Free Deb. |

“ My sister, I miss you everyday. Mom and Copper sit on the couch waiting to see you ride up on your bicycle. You are free...to feel all the love. Your life mattered and you made a difference. I see you everywhere. I see hearts ❤️ I see the love I see the flowers. I miss you.

“ Aunt Deb, we were the only two peas in our pod, and even though we didn't always see eye to eye. We had each other's back. You were definitely loved and you are definitely missed. The iguanas sure miss their 15 minutes of Fame. I hope there is a heaven, and if there is, I know yours will be filled with intoxicating images that stick out to you in objects, iguanas, and these damn purple weeds you loved so much.

I hope to see you again someday. And just remember, if you're looking for ANYTHING, it's has to be in that tan and blue tackle box.
