

Deloris Meredith

April 12, 1931 - February 19, 2018

Deloris Meredith, 86, passed away on February 19, 2018. Deloris was born April 12, 1931, in Montpelier, Idaho to Alfred Swa and Minnie Pearl Watson Swa. She moved to Fort Collins in 1959.

Deloris married James “Jim” Leroy Meredith on March 1, 1969 in Colorado Springs. She was a custodian supervisor at Colorado State University for 18 years. She was known as Grandma Green and cared for the students who worked for her. Her spunky and spicy personality endeared her to all who knew her.

Deloris was a loving mother, mother-in-law, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She was an avid bowler. On Wednesday afternoons, you would find her playing Bingo. She loved to crochet and made many blankets for her children and grandchildren. She also loved to fish and go camping. Her favorite activity was spending time with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren; decking the tree at Christmas when her whole family surrounded her was a very special time, and she would spend weeks making some of their favorite treats.

Deloris is survived by her children Bob LaMar and daughter-in-law Donna; Robbie Bauer and son-in-law Pete, of Ft. Collins; Sherry Meredith-Babeon and son-in-law Lloyd; James “Pug” Meredith and daughter-in-law Deb of Denver; 11 grandchildren; and 12 great-grandchildren.

Preceding Deloris in death was her husband Jim, her parents; 9 brothers and sisters; one son; and one grandchild.

“ I am so sad to learn of Aunt Deloris' passing. She was definitely one of my favorite aunts and was always so funny! Unfortunately I lost touch with her after my dad's passing (her brother, Lloyd Swa). May she rest in peace... what a beautiful lady

“ Deloris was one amazing, funny lady, best DATE CAKE and DATE PINWHEEL COOKIES EVER!!! So glad I have her recipe. She loved my poodle IZZY and always was happy when Izzy came to visit. She loved her trout and my husband would filet them so she didn't have to deal with the bones. She will truly be missed.

“ My Aunt Deloris was a very special and unique lady. I met her when I was about 4 years old and she had just married my uncle. I was so excited about having her as my aunt. I was very glad when she decided to make her home in Fort Collins. I was able to enjoy her special wit throughout my formative years. Even though I moved away, I always kept in contact with her and she would keep updated on my cousins. I will really miss her, but I know she is in good hands now and will no longer be in any pain. God Bless you and keep you warm in his loving arms.....your loving niece, Cindy

“ I met Delores when she was bowling at Monte Carol with my mom in the 80's. We never saw a grandma who was more involved in her kids and grandchildrens lives. She loved you all so much. She always had a good story to tell, joke to laugh at, enjoyed life so much. She will be missed but is always with you! Wings to Heaven....
