“ So very sad to hear that Dennis passed. He was one of the good ones. I remember that Dennis seemed to put on a tough exterior, but you knew inside he was a kind and generous friend. Always there to lend a hand if need be. He will be missed.

“ We were just starting our life's journey together. Oh the places we were going to go and things we had planned to do. Our future was so bright, but God had other plans. He always takes the good one's home to soon. And you were a good one. The passion you had for your family, for your friends, for us....it was amazing. Always so positive and giving. How your eyes lit up when you told me about the Thursday afternoon drive-bys your daughter and granddaughter would make, as well as all the many other stories you shared with me.

I miss you like crazy. Until we meet again, hugs sweetheart.

“ Very saddened to here this news today from another friend, Scott Reed. Dennis could have a temper, but when thinking, I remember his kindness. If someone needed help, and he was able to do so, he would. From climbing "Sayler" hill in the winter time, in attempts to tube, to him making pork and beans with mustard (instead of ketchup - I had never seen that before) to helping my Mom move from Gregory Rd to Club View Rd in High School, he was truly a good friend and though he may be gone, his spirit and memories of being with him will always endure. Will always love you buddy, Mark Silhasek

“ I will keep and hold dear the memories of our youth. You always seemed to be the planet we all revolved around in so many different ways.

I have never listened to Bob Seger or Neil Young without your face coming into view.

Nor attended a pig roast without thinking of the fields and the house in Bellvue.

You gave me the love of Harley's and the smell of old garage floors soaked in oil.

Whether it was the back of your sportster or the fat boy - what a ride. We had us a time didn't we!

I know you are somewhere out there...riding... against the wind!

Indeed! The universe seemed to hold us in this bubble of time and space. Memories that had become echos, flooding back this week. I didn't have girl friends, I had all of you. All my boys. Survive we did - carrying the spirit of each other with us through the years. ❤️

“ Dennis, you have been a part of our lives since 1978. Your passing leaves a hole in our hearts that can never be filled. So many good memories-giving Donovan his first toy right after his birth, being present at your weddings and at Christine's birth, watching our kids grow up -sharing all of our joys and sorrows. So many stories and so much love. May you rest peacefully. I know you will be watching over and protecting your family as a guardian angel-after all, bulldogs were your spirit animal! We love you dearly and will miss you always.
