“ I taught at Ft. Collins High School during the time Doan was there as a student. Though I didn't know him back then, he introduced himself to me at the Class of '75 reunion in 2015 and we became Facebook friends. I really enjoyed sharing messages and getting to know him on FB and wish our paths had crossed much sooner. I'm thankful I had the chance to meet him and chat with him over the past 7 years. I am truly saddened by the news of Doan's passing and my heart goes out to his family and friends.

“ I didn't see Doan often enough but we always seemed to pick up our conversation where we left off. On Labor Day my Dad, Mom and myself would drive to Fort Collins and spend time with Bernice and Doan. I believe my memory serves me right the day was spent in the house Doan lived in. In the lower level Aunt Bernice had a beauty shop. "Grief has no time limit, just be good to yourself."
