

Dorothy Irene Fuller

February 16, 1938 - August 21, 2023

Dorothy Irene Fuller, 85 of Fort Collins Colorado went home to be with her Heavenly Father on Monday, August 21, 2023

Dorothy was born in Florence Colorado on February 16, 1938 to John Allen and Dorothy Irene Murphy. She was one of sixteen children, eight brothers and seven sisters.

Dorothy's heart and joy was found in spending time with her children and their families. She especially loved times when her siblings would reunite and their families would all come together to share in lots of fun, food and laughter. These were truly the most precious of times to her! She also loved to travel the United States and loved socializing with the friends she made along the way.

She spent many years serving her Lord and Savior through her church (Village East Baptist Church, Cherry Creek Baptist Church, and First Bible Baptist Church), she also served in the children's ministry as a Sunday school teacher for several years. Her love for children continued as she ran her In-Home Daycare for many years.

She is survived by her four children Louis LeRoy Fuller (Joni), Louis Harrison Fuller, Jr. (Sandy), Randy Lee Fuller (Deanna), Brenda LeAnn Nordtvedt

(Chadwick).

Also survived by her

11-grandchildren: Brittany, Lindsay, Brandon, Jodi, Jamie, Wesley, Amber, Danny, Dustin, Alisha, Randi

“ I wake up today with a heavy heart. Today we celebrate the life of my most favorite person,that smile i will always remember. There are a lot of memories from childhood for me like when aunt Dorothy and uncle Lou lived in Denver oh how us kids loved that basement,we ripped and tore around roller skating ,running raising all kinds of heck...course you know it wasn't me making noise it would have been Leroy,Junior, and probably Len... No need for me to tell you aunt Dorothy how much I love and care about you cause you know...will always be a special place in my heart for you. What a welcome you must have gotten in heaven so many family waiting your arrival....until we meet again!
