

Douglas Paul Burman

August 16, 1958 - January 25, 2012

Douglas Paul Burman, 53, of Fort Collins, Colorado, died on January 25, 2012 in a tragic accident. Doug was born on August 16, 1958, in Greeley, Colorado to Charles R. and Anna Lee Burman. Doug was a native of Northern Colorado. He spent his working career as a stationary engineer at UNC's heat plant. Doug loved his family above all things. He enjoyed camping, fishing, trap shooting, 4 wheeling, and frequent trips to Mexico. Doug loved spending time with his two grandsons, Cale and Jaxon. Doug was very mechanically inclined. He enjoyed welding and ran Burman Welding for many years. Doug had a great sense of humor and a big heart. Doug married his soul mate, Lana Burman on April 10, 1994. Together they blended their families and made many happy memories. Doug was preceded in death by his mother, Anna Lee Burman; brother, David Burman, and step-mother, Deana Burman. Doug is survived by his wife, children, Chadrick Burman of Fort Collins, Douglas Burman of Severance, Colorado, Brittany Williams and spouse, Cody of Fort Collins, Mark Moffitt of Fort Collins, grandsons, Cale Burman and Jaxon Williams, and father, Charles Burman of Ault. Doug's life will be remembered at Bohlender Funeral Chapel on Monday, January 30, 2012, at 3:00 p.m. with a reception to follow.

“ To all of Doug’s family, I knew Doug back in the days when he and I attended school in Ault – Doug was a year younger than me, and he was always a nice, pleasant kid to be around. As years rolled along after high school, I spent more time around Doug’s parents, Dee and Chuck. Please extend my condolences to all of your family, and please let Chuck know, also, that all of Doug’s family will be in my thoughts and prayers.

“ I could ALWAYS count on Doug for a smile and a friendly chat. He made the work at UNC a bit lighter for all of us. Doug and I shared a favorite vacation spot - Puerto Vallarta; swapping stories was always fun. Rest in PEACE, Doug. “ Dear Lana and Family - Words cannot express how very sorry I am to hear about Doug. I remember meeting him for the first time when I came to pick up my niece and nephew Tygen and Avery. They were all playing in the backyard and Doug was right there in the middle of all the kids. I could tell the kids just adored him and he them. Please know you all have been and will continue to be in my prayers. Sincerely, "Aunt Jen" sister/sister-in-law of Dan and Janae Ingalls

“ I am very sorry for the Burman family to hear of this tragic loss. I served on the WCF&W Board of Directors for many years with Doug and considered him a friend. My son Tanner worked as trap boy at the range for a while and was very fond of Doug. Doug had been teaching him the basics of trap shooting. He will be greatly missed.

“ Doug's family and friends: So very sorry to learn of Doug's passing. I live several blocks east of your home and met Doug by way of our love for dogs. My first conversation with Doug concerned his elderly dog. I had noticed the dog collar heavy with a zillion dog tags hanging on the inside rearview mirror of his truck. Doug confirmed my suspicion of the passing of his dog across that rainbow bridge. We shed some tears together and Doug introduced his new pup to my German shepherd. I and my dog Rosa will miss his wide smile and friendly wave. "I am not dying; I am entering life" The Last Conversations Blessings, Iris and Rosa
