“ I became friends with Ivans first wife Opal, at the Lory Student Center where we both worked. My husband Bill and I enjoyed many occasions together with Opal and Ivan. Bill and our two sons, enjoyed hunting with Ivan and staying at the home of his brother in Craig. He was a very fine friend. Ruth Spinden

“ I've known Ivan for most of my life. He use to tell us stories of his days on the ranch. One of his stories involved purchasing dynamite at Tolivers' hardware store in Fort Collins, pedaling his bike to a local cherry orchard and blowing out stumps. He was one fine fellow.
