“ I usually read all the Obituaries, but hadn't seen the one for my friend Esther Pressel; then when I found hers last night, I was shocked to see Marilyn's name above hers. I started seeing Marilyn about 25 years ago for my skin problems and could always rely on her having the right answers and treatments. The on-line obituary had so many details I'd never known such as her, like me, being from Wyoming and having attended CSU, and very surprisingly having been in the military. I'm especially sad for her friend and business manager, Bonnie. I will try to get to the service, but I have an appointment in Denver earlier that day and am not sure when I will get back. I'll certainly be thinking of her. Nancy Lea
